

Ruby Room Newsletter

December 15, 2011

Ms Karen and Ms Debbie

We wish each one of you a very joyful and peaceful winter break.

Curriculum

Writing: Organization trait.

Descriptive writing

Math: 4th-Division, multiplication, Accelerated Math. Graphing

5th –Relating fractions and decimals, divisibility rules, Accelerated Math. Graphing

Spelling: Lesson #10

Language: Variety of Adjectives and daily oral language.

Cultural: Chemistry, Body systems, California history

Winter Break

A review packet and list of incomplete work is being sent home today. The winter break is a great time to catch up on incomplete work and technology assignments. The science packet with guideline for the science project is also being sent home.

Wish List Items

Healthy snacks thank you Kamal's mom!

Black, red, yellow, green cardstock

Ellis's Corner

We continue to have cultural rotations this week. We made gifts for our families. We also learned about different holidays that are celebrated this time of year.

Lost and Found

We still have sheets that were loaned to us for the Continent Party. Please come in and claim your sheets!

Winter Break Assignments

It's not too early to plan for the Science Faire. Be ready to share several topics of investigation. Also, any unfinished work, reading logs, and technology assignments can be completed over the break. Home connect can be accessed at home using the link in the parent letter you are receiving with the Winter break packet.

Homework Corner

Homework is due at 8:30 on Fridays.

*Read at least 30 minutes. Record on reading log sheet or notebook paper.

Write a summary of what you have read.(You may combine log and summary.)

*Study math facts

Wordly Wise homework: No work this week

*Math : Any work not completed in class.

Rosetta Stone: AT LEAST 2 lessons a week

K-8th: Choose two lessons to complete.

Have planner signed every day.

Important Dates

Happy 2012!

January 9, 2012-Return to school

January 16,2012- No School-MLK Birthday

January 27-Minimum Day-Report Cards go home