

Reading Response Journal

Throughout the journal, record the following information for each reading session:

DATE / TITLE / AUTHOR / A/R QUIZ # / independent, read to or read with

For every reading session, Your child should write a response to the reading; this can be at least one sentence to a paragraph, depending on his/her writing ability. Your child may also draw a picture related to the reading response topic.

Parents are invited to help with the reading, response and writing process.

Use the following prompts as a guide for the reading response journal:

My favorite character in the story was _____ because...

One thing I would change about the story is...

My favorite part of the story was when...

The character I would want as a friend would be _____ because...

Some things I learned from the story are...

The setting in the book is...

The next thing to happen might be...

I chose this book because...

This book is easy, just right or challenging and I know because...

I want to remember the part in the story...

This story makes me feel _____ because...

My favorite illustration is _____ because...

This story reminds me of a time when...

I would like to be in this story so I could...

By reading this story, I learned...

I wonder...

The part that surprised me in the story was _____ because...

I think the author chose the title because...

My friend _____ would like this story because...