A Note from the Teachers:

Thank you to our families who attend, shop, prepare, and clean for pancake breakfast. Unfortunately we have had several families whose schedules have changed and they are unable to help anymore. That leaves our beloved Chef Susan with only one family who is able to help. Therefore, this is a shout out for help! If you can mix batter, make juice, flip a pancake, have another culinary skill or can wash a dish, we need your help. Families with younger siblings usually find the family atmosphere easy to help with breakfast. Please contact a teacher or Chef Susan directly.

We are very excited to go see the theatrical production of Beauty and the Beast this Thursday at Folsom Lake College. Thank you to all our fabulous families who are so willing to help with chaperoning. We will be coming directly back to school for lunch after the performance.

As the Second and Third graders are perfecting their own musical theater with their play scheduled for November 18th, you might be hearing Thanksgiving Day songs around your home lately. One student recently said, "The Mashed Potato' song is the most delicious song he has ever heard."

Mrs. Fagan + Ms. Yarbrough

A Quote from Maria Montessori

"We teachers can only help the work going on, as servants wait upon a master."
