Winter Break:
See you in 2012!

A Note from the Teachers:

Welcome back! We hope you enjoyed the week-long break from school!

This Friday, Dec. 2nd we have a Spirit Day: Dress for your future career. Maybe you'll decide to come to school as a doctor, football player, chef, or president of the United States. The sky's the limit!

Also happening on Friday, Dec. 2nd, is the deadline for the 2011-2012 CMP Yearbook Cover Photo Contest. We are looking for an original photograph that best depicts CMP. Photos can be of the campus, families, staff, or students. Written permission from each subject in the photo must be obtained by the student's parent.

Just a pleasant reminder regarding Thursday mornings...On Thursdays, we are attending grade level and staff meetings until 8:30am. Students who arrive before this time are asked to please go to Club M until there is a teacher to supervise them in the classroom. Parents, we would greatly appreciate if you would be so kind as to drop your child off at the Club M gate rather than the Aspen deck should you arrive before 8:30am on Thursday mornings. We feel that this will help the students be successful with this endeavor! ☺

Ms. Yarbrough & Mrs. Fagan

Check the Monday (11/28) homework folder for the new field trip permission slip to Air and Space Museum. Please return ASAP!
