

Eucalyptus Class Newsletter January 9, 2012

Monthly Trait—Forgiveness

“Forgiveness is the fragrance that the violet sheds on the heel that has crushed it.”—Mark Twain

Welcome Back!

Some Improvements in Eucalyptus for the New Year

Welcome back students and families and Happy 2012! Hopefully parents are hearing good things about the 2012 Eucalyptus classroom. New cubbies, changes to morning circle and Care of Environment procedures, a cleaning supply cabinet, more plants, and an overall new and improved prepared environment.

Curriculum Updates:

Science Fair, Accelerated Math, Mid-year Assessments

- The Science Fair is coming up next month and information will be coming home in the Wednesday folders.
- Students will now be using Accelerated Math in class on a daily basis.
- We will also be conducting our midyear assessments over the next two weeks.
- Report Cards will be coming soon as well.

Dates to Remember

- 1/12 Assembly – Forgiveness
- 1/13 Spirit Day - Crazy Hat Day
- 1/16 No School - MLK Observance
- 1/27 Minimum Day
- 2/16 Science Fair

Please see School Newsletter for more details.

Person of the Week

Tony T.

Tony just turned 10 years old over the winter intersession. He celebrated his birthday at Six Flags. Tony loves school, playing sports, and video games. He is also very knowledgeable about cars and how they operate.

Thank You, Brian McCarthy!

Thank you Brian for your time and the shiny new cubbies in Eucalyptus. They're beautiful and the kids are very excited.

Homework

- Spelling and math workbooks in the Friday homework folders.
- Book Reports--Biography