

Eucalyptus Class Newsletter October 31, 2011

Honesty

"Honesty is the first chapter in the book of wisdom."
~Thomas Jefferson

Dates to Remember

- 11/4 Spirit Day
Sports Jerseys
- 11/8 School Assembly: Honesty
- 11/9 Tall Ships Field Trip
5th Grade
- 11/11 Veterans Day
No School
- 11/18 Minimum Day
Teacher In-service

*Please see School Newsletter for more details.

Cultural Rotations

Monday we will begin our new Lesson Rotations. Mr. A will be teaching 4th grade science, Mrs. Sanders will be teaching 4th grade Social Studies, Ms. Yeager will be teaching 5th grade Science and Mrs. Gerstle will be teaching 5th grade Social Studies. These rotations will be 4 days a week focusing on one subject for 2 days each cycle.

Power a Bright Future Grant

Please remember to vote for our Clorox Power a Bright Future Grant.

Directions for Voting (remember you can vote twice per day: once via text and once online!)

To vote via text: Text to 44144: clorox8362

To vote online or via a smart phone: Log on to www.powerabrightfuture.com and cast your vote for grant number "clorox8362"

Person of the Week Presley G.

Presley LOVES horses, especially Danny Boy (aka "DB") and Mystery (aka "Stink Pot"). Mystery tends to be a little spirited. Presley also loves boating with her family and skiing during the winter.

Homework

- Spelling and math workbooks in the Friday homework folders.
- Please read a book with an animal as the Main Character for this month's book report, which is due Dec. 2nd. (Please note that due to book availability, we switched this month's book report genre. We'll have access to Fig and Maple's Biographies for next month's book reports. ☺)