A Note From the Teachers:

What a wonderful field trip we had at Taylor Creek! The weather was blissful and the scenery exquisite! Thank you to all of our families who attended. Our students truly have some wonderful memories from the all around, perfect day.

Field Trip Update:

There was a correction to the Beauty and the Beast permission slips. Parent chaperones need to be in Willow, Aspen, or Laurel at 9am for check in and itinerary, and departing with students at 9:15. Students should still be in class at the normal time.

Here's a look at the wonderful subject areas that we focused on last week:

Geometry: Parts of an Angle (all)

Writers' Workshop: Character Development- The Antagonist (3rd)
